 The poster has a dark, textured background. At the top, a blue banner reads "THE RICHARD & LOUISE GUY LECTURE SERIES". Below this is a large orange graphic consisting of a stylized brain or thought bubble on the left and two vertical bars on the right. The title "NATIVE AMERICAN MATHEMATICS" is written in large, bold, white capital letters. Below the title, the text reads: "Learn about the rich and extensive mathematical traditions of the Western Hemisphere prior to European contact in this lecture by Prof. Robert E. Megginson of the Department of Mathematics, University of Michigan." The date and time are "Thursday, 18 September, 2014 @ 5pm" and the location is "Room 132, Kinesiology Block B, University of Calgary". It also states "Free Admission". At the bottom, there are logos for the University of Calgary and PIMS, along with the text "For more information visit pims.math.ca or math.ucalgary.ca".
